

Gear

Our camping and hiking trips include all pro-quality gear, meals, and snacks required for your adventure. This includes tents, sleeping bags, camp pillows, sleeping pads, cooking supplies, trekking poles, and daypacks and/or backpacks.

We are happy to accommodate food allergies and most dietary restrictions. Please include your preferences in your trip information sheet so that we can prepare accordingly.

You are responsible for bringing the following items for your trek. This list includes what you will be wearing the first day of the trip. Consider bringing a change of clothes to leave in our vehicle should you wish to change at the end of your trek.

- 3 liters of initial water (in bladder set bladder-up to 2 liters max, hose, mouthpiece and/or some type of smaller water bottles)
- Sunglasses
- Wide-brimmed hat
- Lightweight, quick-dry towel
- Compact toiletry/personal items kit/baby wipes
- Personal medical supplies (OTC and prescription meds, supplements, etc.)
- Hiking shoes or boots (be sure to break-in before trip)
- Sports sandals or water shoes
- 3 pair synthetic or synthetic-wool blend socks
- 1-2 pair of hiking shorts and/or long pants that zip off to shorts
- 3 changes of underwear (recommend non-cotton, breathable, quick-dry)
- 1-2 short-sleeved shirts (breathable, wicking recommended)
- Sleepwear
- Small flashlight or headlamp
- Rain poncho and/or other rain gear (jacket with hood, nylon shell, rain pants, etc.)
- Back up pair of glasses or contacts
- Cash for souvenirs and personal expenses

- Cash for guide gratuity (or consider using our Bravo tipping app - suggested gratuity is industry average, 5-15% of total trek cost)
- At least 1-2 zip lock or "dry" bags of appropriate size for what you want to keep dry when in water/rain
- Paperback book and/or journal if desired
- Sunscreen

If traveling in cooler months, add:

- Fleece jacket
- Gloves
- Wool hat
- Long underwear layers
- Long sleeved shirt
- Clothes to layer

If you would like to purchase your own gear before or after your trek, we recommend:

Weather

Average weather conditions for the area can be found on our website. Because of the variation in temperature at different elevations and at different times of day, we suggest layering clothing and/or using zip-off type clothing.

Payment Information

A deposit of $500 per person is due with registration (unless it is less than 90 days before trip departure in which case the full amount is due).

To protect your financial investment, we recommend you secure travel insurance.
